Mrs. Plane Leading Movement

For Monument to Confederacy

Which Will Be World Wonder

Eighty-five years young, Mrs. C. F. Plane, honorary president of the Stone Mountain Memorial Association, is actively leading the movement for a monument to the Confederacy. This movement is one of the most significant in Atlanta's history, and it is a tribute to the city's rich heritage.

Mrs. Plane is the daughter of the late Mr. C. F. Plane, a prominent Atlanta citizen who served as mayor of the city from 1881 to 1885. She has been a vocal advocate for the monument since its inception, working tirelessly to ensure its completion.

The monument will be located on a hillside overlooking Stone Mountain, one of the city's most iconic landmarks. The design, which has been the subject of much debate, will feature a statue of a Confederate soldier and a tablet commemorating the city's history.

Mrs. Plane is known for her tireless dedication to the monument project, and her efforts have been recognized by the city's leaders. She has been awarded numerous honors for her contributions, including the coveted presidential medal of freedom.

The monument is expected to be completed in the near future, and it will be a source of pride for all Atlantans. It will stand as a testament to the city's rich history and its ongoing commitment to preserving it for future generations.
