

BANNER-WATCHMAN.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Echols, of Oglethorpe, was in the city yesterday. Mayor Rucker is in Augusta watching the fire-ward.

BIRD'S EYE VIEW OF THE CITY.

Sugar and syrup advancing. Look out for Jim Baldwin's adv. The cool mornings make cotton look "fox-eared."

A NEW LINE.—Dr. Lowrance and Hampton have their dental office connected by a regular telephone.

ALMOST A FIRE.—Yesterday a fire broke out in the lint room of Princeton factory and for a short time great excitement prevailed.

THE STOCK LAW.

Yesterday morning we had a slight light rain. The H. B. F. Clayton, of Anderson, S. C., who is a senator as well as a prominent merchant.

A NAMELESS CRIME.

Yesterday evening the police arrested a man named Louis Segoe, charged with the assault upon a young girl.

THE DEAD ROUNTREE.

His body exhumed by order of Solicitor-General Mitchell. And a Post Mortem Revue's Ball that Ended his Young Life.

THE BAPTIST PICNIC.

Yesterday morning a large assembly gathered at the Baptist church and marched to the city of Augusta.

LEGAL NOTICES.

WILL BE SOLD BEFORE THE COURTHOUSE. The following is a list of property to be sold by the Sheriff of this county.

TRADE NOTES.

Our merchants must not let the North-Eastern suffer. It has been the making of our city. A colored boy got "higgen Sunday" and was sent to the penitentiary.

GRANITE BED.

There is a magnificent bed of fine building granite at Jug Tavern on the estate of Col. Wiley Bush. The chimneys of the houses for five miles each way are built of this stone.

WIND-MILLS.

The wind-mills now being erected in our city cost $75 apiece. They are being erected for the purpose of pumping out the water from the city.

GRANITE BED.

There is a magnificent bed of fine building granite at Jug Tavern on the estate of Col. Wiley Bush. The chimneys of the houses for five miles each way are built of this stone.

GRANITE BED.

There is a magnificent bed of fine building granite at Jug Tavern on the estate of Col. Wiley Bush. The chimneys of the houses for five miles each way are built of this stone.

GRANITE BED.

There is a magnificent bed of fine building granite at Jug Tavern on the estate of Col. Wiley Bush. The chimneys of the houses for five miles each way are built of this stone.

GRANITE BED.

There is a magnificent bed of fine building granite at Jug Tavern on the estate of Col. Wiley Bush. The chimneys of the houses for five miles each way are built of this stone.

GRANITE BED.

There is a magnificent bed of fine building granite at Jug Tavern on the estate of Col. Wiley Bush. The chimneys of the houses for five miles each way are built of this stone.