BANNER-WATCHMAN.

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF CITY AND COUNTY

T. L. GANTT, EDITOR & PROP'R.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

Daily Banner-Watchman.....$8 00
Weekly Banner-Watchman.....1 50
Sunday Banner-Watchman.....1 00

Invariably in advance. Neither Jay Gould Vanderbilt, or General Grant can get a paper on credits. Will positively drop every name from our books not paid in advance.

Confederate Fans.

Miss Emma Witherspoon is making some beautiful fans from guinea and other feathers, for which she finds ready sale in New York at 50 cents each. A lady in that city takes all she can make.

Church Blown Down.

A high wind, last Saturday, blew down the Methodist church at Royston, on the Elberton road, but did no further damage. Teccoa, for a time, feared a cyclone.

Poisoned Cows.

Several valuable cows have lately been poisoned in Athens by eating evergreen. It drenched with a pint of melted lard the poison is at once killed and the animal recovers in a few days.

Methodism.

Rev. W. P. Lovejoy, P. E., Elberton district, is soon to issue from the house of J. W. Burke & Co., Macon, Ga., a concise history of Methodism from its beginning to the present time.

Caught.

The negro who escaped from the county convict farm has been captured up at Apple Valley. John Tuck says that when one gets away a little printer's ink, well used, is the best thing to overtake them with.

A Mica Mine.

Pink Price has discovered a fine deposit of mica near his fish ponds, with clear flakes that will square 10 or 12 inches. He has been working on it for several days, and will get out some for shipment. If there is any money in this business Pink will get it out.

Discovery.

A young man in Athens has made a valuable discovery in the analysis of fertilizers. He is now engaged in confirmatory tests, and so far his method has proven successful. He will soon put it before scientific men and it will no doubt win considerable reputation for him.

Brought Back.

Redwine, the defaulter who was arrested at Orlando, Florida, has been brought back to Atlanta. He claims that his shortage is only $320, and that he made no efforts at concealment, or even tried to escape. His friends think he will come out all right and several drummers on the road have telegraphed money to assist him in his troubles.

Hon. Seaborn Reese.

Conversation with the members of the Executive Committee yesterday, showed that our congressman will have no opposition for re-election. Mr. Reese has a firm hold upon the people of his district. His record the present term has made him many and firm friends, and we hear nothing but words of commendation on all sides, of his manly career.

Distinguished Paupers.

Thomas Jefferson and John G. Westmoreland are both inmates of the Clarke county poor house. Superintendent Tuck has the application of Catherine McCray, white, set down as "Laziness." The following is a list of the present paupers: Whites—Fielden Pullen, Adaline Pullen, James Hansford, Ann Boston, Mary Seay, J. G. Westmoreland, Sarah Westmoreland. Colored—Thomas Jefferson, Robert Deupree, Jane Wyley.

No Case.

Mr. P. Lewis, the one-legged soldier who was arrested for selling beef on the street, persisted in remaining in the calaboose, Monday night, although a number of gentlemen offered to go upon his bond. He consulted his lawyer about bringing a suit for false imprisonment against this city, but after looking into the matter the attorney informed Mr. Lewis that he had no case. He has been sentenced to 30 days confinement for refusing to pay his fine or give bond for an appearance at court. The Mayor simply did his duty.

Clarke's Bridges.

Judge Jackson says all the bridges in Clarke county are in good repair. He has just had a new bridge built over Big creek on the Lexington road, at a cost of about $85. The abuttments will be put up by the county convicts. The Judge will have the gully bridge, near Princeton factory, fixed so that it will last for ages. He estimates that a substantial bridge at Simonton's, between Clarke and Oconee, will cost about $5,000. It is hoped that it will be built, as we can complete it next year, without increasing taxation one dollar. A great deal of public work is being done by the county convicts, at considerable saving to the tax-payers.

Encounter With a Snake.

Mayor Dorsey was going over to his home Tuesday on his pony, when all at once the pony got very excited and commenced trying to throw the Mayor, and he got off and turned her loose. He saw a large coachwhip snake that had caused the excitement of the pony. The snake at once showed fight and came at the Mayor as hard as it could run. He picked up a rail and struck it on the tail. The snake ran through the fence and prepared for another attack. By this time the Mayor began thinking it was getting time to make tracks. The snake came back through the fence with all speed possible, when the Mayor struck it again and killed it. We have heard of these snakes attacking people before, but never thought there was much danger in them.

The Walking Match.

The great reporter's walking match closed in Atlanta Saturday night. The following is the order in which they were at the end of the race.

S. W. Small,	37	miles 3 laps.
E. T. Byington,	49	" 12 "
J. A. Carter,	48	" "
Seith Clayton,	38	" 3 "
Ebb Ramsdell,	30	" 5 "
R. M. Cheshire,	48	" 3 "
C. T. Logan,	21	" 8 "
E. C. Bruffey,	46	" 9 "

There was a great deal of interest taken in this race and the winner, Mr. Cheshire, will get a very good part of the proceeds. Mr. Cheshire was formerly an Athens man and worked on the Banner-Watchman, which is the cause of his good luck. He has many friends in Athens who rejoiced at his coming out ahead. The hopes of a good many centered on Smith Clayton.

THE BAD BOY.

"Don't speak to me," said the groceryman to the bad boy, as he showed up in his shirt-sleeves early one morning, and acted familiar with his old friend. "Go right away from here, and please keep away forever. I have overlooked about a thousand of your eccentric characteristics, because you have argued with me and showed me that you were actuated by worthy motives. But this last thing you have done, has been the last hair that has broken the camel's back, and henceforth you and I are strangers, and I will take it as a favor if you will keep on your own side of the street," and the groceryman opened the door and pointed the way out.

"What seems to be eating you," said the bad boy, as he went to the back end of the grocery, leaving the groceryman pointing out the open door, sat down on the high stool by the desk, and began to figure on a piece of brown paper, with a stub pencil. "You must be troubled with worms, and there is nothing better for worms than vermifuge. What have I done now, that causes you such agony?"

"Done! You have disgraced yourself, your family, and me, and everybody. Didn't I see you go down an alley last night, in your shirt sleeves, locked arms with that nigger boy who lives down there? Don't deny it, you couldn't you, cause I was watching you, and the nigger was drunk or something, because he staggered, and I don't believe you were much better. That comes of loafing around and being bad. When a white associates with niggers, and takes them home when they are drunk, that is all I want to know. Niggers are no better than cattle, and I never saw one that I would walk with for a million dollars. Now own up, didn't you go down the alley with that nigger, and ain't you ashamed of yourself?"

"Oh, is that all? Yes I did walk with the colored boy, and if I had not held him up he would have fallen down, and I am not ashamed of it. Here is a list of groceries I want you to send to that boy's house, down in the alley, if you are not ashamed to deliver things in an alley, and here is the money to pay for them, and now fly around, old bar soap." And the boy took an orange and began to excavate it with his under teeth.

"O, that is different," said the groceryman, as he took the list and began to hurry to fill it. "Maybe I am wrong as usual, but I can't bear niggers. What was the cause of your helping him home, Hennery?"

"There was cause enough. I was coming down toward the river and I saw about fifty people standing on the bridge, watching a little German child drown, and yelling to everybody to do something. The child had fallen off the dock where she was picking up chips. Just as I got there this colored boy threw off his coat and shoes, and jump in, and in a few seconds he had hold of the child, and swam to the dock with her, and held her up, and somebody pulled her out, and they forgot all about the little 'nigger' as you call him and he would have drowned like dirt, only, if I hadn't reached the butt of my fish-pole down to him to climb up on. They took the rescued white child away, and brought her to by rolling her on a barrel, and no one thought anything about the colored boy, they were all so glad the little girl was saved. When the crowd went away somebody had stolen the coat and hat of the colored boy, and he was not very well, 'cause he had pneumonia in March, and the smell of the muddy river water made him turn pale, and he was weak as a cat, so I pulled off my shoes and coat and made him put them on, and took him home. The patrol wagon came, and the policemen would have taken him home in that but the colored boy said he couldn't go in the patrol wagon cause his mother was sick, and if she should see him carried home in a patrol wagon it would scare her into fits. So I took him home and went in ahead and broke the news that her boy was all right to the poor old colored lady, who was sitting up in bed with a small washtub in her lap trying to do some washing for a customer of hers, when she looked as though she was pretty near dead. Gosh, but they are poor! The mother washes for a living, and the boy skirmishes around anywhere he can earn ten cents. I gave him my coat and shoes, and went home and got some of my underclothes that are too warm for me, and I took the wash tub away from the old mother and made her rest, and our hired girl is going to finish washing and iron the clothes, and I am going to take them to the man she washes for, for I have adopted that 'nigger' and his ma until they get well. Now hurry up with them groceries."

"Well, you are a daisy," said the groceryman, as he went to the door to call his delivery wagon man. "You are—"

"No, I ain't, either, I am a heathen," said the boy, as he counted out the pennies and nickels that looked as though they had been taken out of his savings bank at home. "I am a disgrace to my family and friends, 'cause I associate with a 'nigger.' People go to war and spend billions of dollars and millions of lives to free colored men, and pass laws that they shall be equal to the average white man, and they associate with them when they want their votes, but when anybody associates with a colored person unless they have a selfish object in view and have got an axe to grind, they are a disgrace to their families. That colored boy did not stop to think of his health, of the danger of being drowned or asphyxiated by the foul river, but jumped in the water to save life, and what was his reward? He had his coat and shoes and socks stole, and had to crawl out of the water like a dog. O, this is a nice country, and you are a nice old fool, ain't you?"

"Say, kick me, thump me, do anything," said the groceryman, "but I want you to bring that colored boy here and I will give him all the groceries he can lug home," and the groceryman asked the boy's pardon, and he went down the alley to see how his adopted colored family was getting along.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Executive committee of the democratic party of the 8th Congressional district met in Athens May 14th, 1884.

Upon calling the roll it appeared that the following counties were represented: Clarke, Elbert, Hancock, Oglethorpe and Putnam.

John P. Shannon, of Elbert, was chosen as Chairman, and W. B. Burnett, of Clarke, Secretary.

It being apparent that there was not a majority of the counties represented, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, that we recommend that a convention of the democratic party of the 8th congressional district be held in the city of Athens on Tuesday, July 15th, 1884, for the purpose of nominating a representative from said district in the 49th congress, and also to select a new executive committee for said 8th district, And that each county in the district be entitled to twice as many votes in said convention as such county has representation in the lower house of the general assembly, and that delegates to this convention be chosen at such time as the counties may severally determine.

It being made appear that there were vacancies in the Executive committee in the counties of Wilkes and Hart, it was recommended that such vacancies be filled, to continue until a new committee shall be elected, as follows: in Wilkes county by Capt. John T. Erwin; in Hart county by Ira C. Vanduzen, Esq.

The following resolution was also adopted:

Resolved, that all democratic papers circulating in the 8th congressional district be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting, and that the chairman of the executive committee of each county in the district be requested to call the party together in his county, to select delegates to this convention, at such time, as may seem best. On motion the committee adjourned.

JOHN P. SHANNON, Chm'n.
W. B. BURNETT, Secy.

The colored politician who was prevented by arrest from fighting a duel in North Carolina, the other day, has been released from jail and is now ready to fight.

ANSWER TO FEARING MARRIAGE.

Miss Locklin Puts New Version on Mr. Christian's Interview.

OCONEE, COUNTY, GA.—Editor Banner-Watchman: I have never had occasion to have any communication with the press, therefore I feel quite a delicacy in attempting to write; but a few days since I saw my name in bold letters in your paper, under the heading of "Fearing Marriage." I have seen many periods of pleasure, of anxiety and perils in my life, but I never saw anything that astounded me more than to see my letter published in the Banner-Watchman. Notwithstanding I gave my consent for it to be published, I was surprised, because I thought it would be the same as advertising, and I knew—well, I won't say what, as I have too much respect for mankind; but as I have never before attempted to address the press and a people so anxious, I hope it will not be out of place to do here, what I have done again and again in my private chamber—that of imploring Him who holds the destinies of nations and individuals in His hands, to be-stow upon me His blessing, to calm the rage of my heart, to still passion and to allow reason to once more resume its empire in the hearts of the speculative public, and may I not also ask Him to bestow on me the blessings of His smiles and strength, and give me the ability to perform the work which now lies before me. Mr Editor, I do not falsify, nor do I like to criticise, but there have been false impressions made as regards my meeting Mr. Christian at my sister's, Mrs. Evans'. I never met an ordinary friend more deliberately and coolly in my life. We never so much as shook hands. After we went to the parlor and he began his suit, I became excited and shed tears of sympathy, and I do thank God that I have a heart that can and does sympathize with those that need sympathy, but I had too much control over myself to make an engagement with him. The paper says I made it in 15 minutes after I met him. Mr. Editor, I think I was rational, and I know I never made the engagement in 15 minutes, nor has there been an engagement between us since. He (Lacy) insisted that I should renew the engagement, and I first told him that it was impossible. He still insisted, and wanted to marry that night, when I, to put him off, told him that was out of the question; that there was no one near enough that could perform the ceremony, but without any further explanation he went out to make arrangements for the marriage in a few minutes. Mr. Evans came in and told his wife that I was to be married that night. She became very much excited and called me, telling me she supposed I was determined to marry. I was perfectly surprised, and told her I reckoned she was mistaken, and did she think that I would marry a man that I had just left home the day before rather than see, much less marry? No, I had no such intention, and as for me saying that he was the only man I ever loved, he is very much mistaken; and he also says we had been engaged for three years. I reckon he meant three weeks, for it hadn't been exceeding five. Mr. Editor, I have dealt as kindly with this matter as possible. I do not wish to injure the young man in the least, and if he had published the thing as it was, I should not have said one word; but hoping that this will be the last of it, I close, wishing that Mr. Christian's troubles may be little ones. I am,

S. A. LOCKLIN.

DANIELSVILLE DOINGS.

Mrs. Willis Nelms, daughter of I. V. Moore, Esq., of Newtown, died very suddenly on the 9th inst. She, her sister, Mrs. Brown, and several children were on Fork creek fishing. They had caught several fish, when Mrs. Nelms caught a perch. She remarked "I have got a perch," and on reaching out to take it from her hook dropped over dead. Her little babe two months old was in her lap. She was buried at Fork church Saturday. She was about sixteen years old.

Little Al Power is suffering from a broken thigh bone.

The farmers are wishing for rain.

Gold fever will probably break out in this county soon. Some of our citizens give interesting accounts of what has been done panning gold in this section.

Bang May, an old mountain miner, is now making money panning the precious metal on Broad river.

She Wanted to Know.

"What do they mean by lap in these walking matches?" she asked of her attachment.

"Sit down here," he said, patting on his knee, "and I can illustrate better than I can explain."

After ascertaining that all was quiet in the house, she permitted him to illustrate, which the wicked fellow did by telling her that the trainers held the boys in that position when they were tired. She merely remarked that that was real nice in the trainers.

OCONEE DOTS.

A big revival has been going on at High Shoals for some time at the Methodist church. There has been an addition of forty or fifty members to the church.

Miss Mattie Hamlet died on Monday, the 12th, at Mrs. James Willoughby's residence and was buried at Farmington yesterday.

In a Dangerous Fix.

Mr. Howell Glenn, Frank Holland, Charlie Hill and Mr. Brooks attended a private picnic at Iceville Wednesday. While out there a serious accident befell the party. The four were out boat-riding on the river. The current was swift and the boat was suddenly turned over. Mr. Brooks is not very stout, and Mr. Glenn tried to save him. In doing so he sank twice. Mr. Charlie Hill started out after Mr. Glenn. About that time Mr. Glenn was pulled out, but Mr. Hill sank twice. Mr. Holland also sank, but they all finally found a log and floated to the shore, without serious damage beyond the wetting.—Constitution.

She Got Mad.

"My dear," he remarked to his wife at the breakfast table, as he finished perusing the morning Banner-Watchman, "read this," pointing to a complimentary personal referring to himself. "In my opinion Gantt gets up a splendid paper." "No doubt you think so," she replied, "but I don't. Here he has pulled you to the skies, and don't say one word about me. It's a pokey paper—that's my opinion." He glanced at her, but didn't think it prudent to argue the matter just then. We will change her opinion before long. See if we don't.

R. S. Kimbrough, of Hamilton county, had a cow to go mad a few days ago, after which he found her dead. Where he found her there were several trees with the bark chewed off. Her mouth was also full of splinters.

INDIAN SUFFERINGS.

A Tribe Leaves its Reservation Because it is Unhealthy.

WINNIPEG, Man. May 10. The latest advices from Indianhead, near Chief Pleapot's reserve, states that the chief, with about six hundred men, were threatening to raid the town if they did not get assistance. The only Indians now on the reserve are five lodges, and they are all sick and unable to get away. Chief Pleapot and five sub-chiefs had a talk with the Indian agent and stated that they would do no harm if they were fed, but could not and would not stay on their reservation, as it was too low and swampy, and that the people are dying five and six each day. The disease was principally quick consumption.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING.

Annual Convention of the Georgia Railroad.

The meeting of the stockholders of the Georgia Railroad & Banking Company was held in Augusta this week. The roll call showed 6,740 shares in person, and 9,522 by proxy. C. H. Phinizy was elected president, and M. P. Stovall, James S. Hamilton, Stevens Thomas, Josiah Sibley, George Hillyer, John Davison, Wm. M. Reese, John H. James, Joel A. Billups, J. H. Alexander, H. D. McDaniel, H. H. Hickman, N. L. Hutchins, Ferdinand Phinizy, D. N. Speer and A. W. Calhoun directors.

Marriage.

Married, in Milledgeville, Ga., on Tuesday evening last, Miss Cora Adams, sister to Mrs. H. C. Lampkin, and Mr. White, of Macon, Ga. The bride is a lovely young lady, well known in Athens, and the groom a popular comercial tourist. Our best wishes attend them.

The County Farm.

John Tuck has just completed on the pauper farm the best barn we ever saw, at a cost of about $400. The crops are all promising, and both convicts and paupers express themselves as well treated. Mr. Tuck is certainly a model officer.

Can't Get Them to Tramp.

Oglethorpe is complaining of negro tramps. The great trouble with Athens is that the negroes won't even tramp. They hunt a shady place and stay in it. We would be perfectly satisfied if they would even tramp.

What they Think.

If we were to imitate some of the big dailies in Georgia by publishing complimentary remarks about our paper, Grifleth would have to double his force and run the paper mill at night to supply us with material to give the complimentary expressions of our friends, but we don't let that make us vain. We shall continue, as heretofore, to try and publish a paper that is not only readable, but that will reflect credit on Athens.

A New Thing.

A new way of backing letters is to put the state first, the postoffice next and the person to whom the letter goes last. This seems to facilitate matters, as the state and postoffice is the first thing needed for the mail agent and the name of the person to whom the letter is directed is what is needed by the postmaster when the letter reaches its destination.

The Contest Will be Hot.

Most all of the county officers will have opposition at the next election. It is not on account of not having good officers, for Clarke county is blessed with good, competent and accommodating officials, but it is because Clarke county has several men who think that they could run the business better. They are at least willing to try it. Whether the people think the same as those fellows who are willing to sacrifice themselves, remains to be seen. The race for bailiff, we learn, will be exceedingly hot.

The Hail Type Writer.

We have had the pleasure of a careful examination of this wonderful machine, one of which is owned by Geo. D. Thomas, Esq., as we mentioned a few days ago. It is a very simple machine and yet very remarkable. It prints as clear as ordinary type, and while Mr. Thomas has had it but a little over a week, he writes with it almost as rapidly as with a pen. In a month he will in all probability be able to make quite as good speed. The documents drawn with it are very handsome and are certainly preferable to most lawyers' writing. The letters written with it are neat and legible. They are capable of being written on very little paper and copy perfectly in a letter book. Any kind of type can be had and should the machine get out of order, it is so simple that any person of average intelligence can put it in order again. These machines are very desirable for all business men and we have no doubt that they will come into general use very soon.

The Pleasure Resorts.

The summer resorts of Northeast Georgia will be crowded this summer with people from all parts of the country. The numerous springs around Gainesville will be well attended, and the hotel accommodations ample for all who expect to visit them. Mt. Airy, the highest point on the Air-Line railroad, will be prepared to accommodate a big crowd; Clarksville, one of the most pleasant little towns on the North-Eastern, will also receive its share of those seeking health and pleasure in the mountains, and the famous Tallulah is better prepared than ever to furnish accommodations for the pleasure seekers. Col. Young has made preparations for a large crowd, which he is bound to receive. Music and dancing every night, and good cool rooms, with plenty to eat. The mountains beyond Clarksville will be full of people who delight in the cool breeze, and to travel up and down the rugged mountain sides.

Reliable gentlemen from Stewart county state that the report that the white woman who died on Jeff Hines' place was shot in the head was entirely incorrect. Her death was caused by the habitual use of morphine and whisky, and she was sick for some time before her death. The body was not exhumed after its interment, but an inquest was held on account of conflicting reports, and a verdict of death from natural causes was returned. It is said that about seventy-five empty morphine vials were found where the woman had stored them away after using the contents.

Cuticura
THE GREAT SKIN CURES

A Positive Cure for Every Form of Skin and Blood Disease, from Pimples to Scrofula.

THOUSANDS of letters in our possession repeat this story: I have been a terrible sufferer for years with Blood and Skin Humors; have been obliged to shun public places by reason of my disfiguring humor; have had the best physicians; have spent hundreds of dollars and got no real relief until I used the CUTICURA REMEDIES, the new Blood Purifier, internally, and CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, the Great Skin Cures and Skin Beautifiers, externally, which have cured me and left my skin and blood as pure as a child's.

ALMOST INCREDIBLE.

JAMES R. RICHARDSON, Custom House New Orleans, on oath, says.—In 1870 Scrofulous Ulcers broke out on my body until I was a mass of corruption. Everything known to the medical faculty was tried in vain. I became a mere wreck. At times could not lift my hands to my head, could not turn in bed; was in constant pain, and looked upon life as a curse. No relief or cure in ten years. In 1880 I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, used them and was perfectly cured.

Sworn to before U. S. Com. J. CRAWFORD.

STILL MORE SO.

WILL MCDONALD, 2542 Dearborn Street, Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Eczema, or Salt Rheum, on head, neck, face, arms, and legs for seventeen years; not able to move, except on hands and knees, for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless permanently cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

MORE WONDERFUL YET.

H. E. Carpenter, Henderson, N. J., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing, by Cuticura Remedies. The most wonderful cure on record. A dustpanful of scales fell from him daily. Physicians and his friends thought he must die. Cure sworn to before a justice of the peace and Henderson's most prominent citizens.

Out of the Jaws of Death

The gentleman who outlines his case below is a man considerably advanced in life, and is noted for his sterling integrity. His postoffice is Yatesville, Upson County, Georgia. The following is

Mr. John Pearson's Statement:

In the Spring of 1881 I was attacked with a very bad cough, which continued to grow worse until Fall, when I got so weak that I could not get about. I tried a great many kinds of medicine, but continued to grow worse. I was notified that I had consumption, and would probably die. Dr. Holloway finally told me to try Brewer's Lung Restorer. They sent to Ward's Store and got a bottle, and I commenced taking it right away. After taking two or three doses, I began to improve, and by the time I had used up one bottle I was able to go to work. I am in the best Lung Remedy ever made, in my opinion. Dr. H. promised me that he would write to the manufacturers and tell them of the wonderful cure it made in my case.

Statement of Mr. Benj. F. Hearndon:

Early in November, 1881, while sawing on the machine, my wife was taken with a severe pain in her side, which was soon followed by hemorrhages from her lungs and a severe cough. Fever commenced, she could neither eat nor sleep, and in a few weeks she was reduced to a living skeleton. The attending physician told me that he thought one of her lungs was entirely gone. She could not retain the most delicate nourishment on her stomach. I then agreed with Dr. Sullivan, my family physician, to call Dr. Holloway in consultation. They made a final examination of the patient, and pronounced the case hopeless. Dr. Holloway then suggested the Brewer's Lung Restorer as a last resort. I sent for a bottle, and gave her a dose. I noted that she could retain it on her stomach, and after about the third dose I began to notice some improvement in her condition. I continued the medicine regularly, and by the time she had taken two bottles she was able to walk about the house. She is now in better health than she has enjoyed for several years. I believe the Lung Restorer saved her life.

Mr. Hearndon's post-office is Yatesville, Upson County, Ga. He is a thoroughly reliable man in every particular.

MANHOOD

How Lost, How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of DR. ROBERT CULVERWELL'S Celebrated Essay on Radical cure of Seminal Weakness, or Spermatorrhœa, Induced by Self-Abuse, Involuntary Emissions, Impotency, Nervous Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally. Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, &c. The celebrated author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequence of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings or cordials, and pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth, and every man in the land.

BOTANIC BLOOD BALM

A PHYSICIAN

Who is very extensively and favorably known throughout the Southern States, says:

Slow action and uncertain effect have always been the two great obstacles in the cure of Blood Diseases; but they have been overcome by the use of B. B. B., which I have met with signal success for the cure of Scrofula, Kidney Affections, Skin Diseases, Syphilitic Complaints, Catarrh, etc.

Its action has been so direct and powerful that one single bottle has often effected an entire cure. As an appetiser and general tonic I have never known its equal. It is well adapted to the Scrofulous Diathesis of infants, and does not contain vegetable or mineral poison.

During a practice of 25 years I have never used a blood remedy so speedy in action; as it has proven to be a giant remedy of absolute certainty, and I cheerfully recommend it as worthy of public confidence. Its wonderful cures are too numerous and too glaring to admit of doubt. J. P. DESMOUCELLE, M.D., Atlanta, Ga.

If afflicted with any form of Blood Poison, call for B. B. B., the only quick Blood Purifier known; and don't permit old, slow remedies to be palmed off upon you. Large bottles $1.00.

WOMAN! HER BEST FRIEND

DR. J. BRADFIELD'S

FEMALE REGULATOR

This famous remedy most happily meets the demand of the age for woman's peculiar and multiform afflictions. It is a remedy for WOMAN ONLY, and for ONE SPECIAL CLASS of her diseases. It is a specific for certain diseased conditions of the womb, and proposes to so control the Menstrual Function as to regulate all the derangements and irregularities of Woman's

MONTHLY SICKNESS.

Its proprietor claims for it no other medical property; and to doubt the fact that this medicine does positively possess such controlling and regulating powers is simply to discredit the voluntary testimony of thousands of living witnesses who are to-day exulting in their restoration to sound health and happiness.

BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR

is strictly a vegetable compound, and is the product of medical science and practical experience directed towards the benefit of

SUFFERING WOMAN!

It is the studied prescription of a learned physician whose specialty was WOMAN, and whose fame became enviable and boundless because of his wonderful success in the treatment and cure of female complaints. THE REGULATOR is the GRANDEST REMEDY known, and richly deserves its name!

WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND,

Because it controls a class of functions the various derangements of which cause more ill health than all other causes combined, and thus rescues her from a long train of afflictions which sorely embitter her life, and prematurely end her existence.

Oh! what a multitude of living witnesses can testify to its charming effects.

WOMAN! take to your confidence this

PRECIOUS BOON OF HEALTH!

It will relieve you of nearly all the complaints peculiar to your sex! Rely upon it as your safeguard for health, happiness and long life.

Price—Small size, 75 cents; Large size, $1.50.

Sold by all Druggists.
